

It is high or about time B2 - Test 1

1. She broke up with her boyfriend a year ago and she hasn't been going out since then. (There are more correct options).
  - A. It's time she begins a new life.
  - B. It's time for her to begin a new life.
  - C. It's time she began a new life.

2. Winter is approaching and I haven't bought a warm coat yet.
  - A. It's about time I buy a warm coat.
  - B. It's about time I bought a warm coat.
  - C. It's about time to buy a warm coat.

3. You are taking an important exam next week, but you haven't started studying yet. (There are more correct options).
  - A. Don't you think it's time to start studying for the exam?
  - B. Don't you think it's time you started studying for the exam?
  - C. Don't you think it's time for you to start studying for the exam?

4. She has had the mobile phone for six years and it often doesn't work. (There are more correct options).
  - A. It's time for her to buy a new mobile phone.
  - B. It's time she buy a new mobile phone.
  - C. It's time she bought a new mobile phone.

5. We're visiting our friends and it's midnight. (There are more correct options).
  - A. It's time for us to say goodbye.
  - B. It's time say goodbye.
  - C. It's time to say goodbye.

6. Peter graduated six months ago. I think he ought to look for a job.
  - A. It's high time to look for a job.
  - B. It's high time Peter look for a job.
  - C. It's high time Peter looked for a job.

7. We should have told our parents the truth.
- A. It's high time we told parents the truth.
  - B. It's high time to tell parents the truth.
  - C. It's high time for us to tell parents the truth.
8. You have been smoking for many years and I'm worried about your health.
- A. It's high time to give up smoking.
  - B. It's high time for you gave up smoking.
  - C. It's high time you gave up smoking.
9. You are leaving early in the morning, and you haven't started packing yet. (There are more correct options).
- A. It's time for you to start packing.
  - B. It's time to start packing.
  - C. It's time you started packing.
10. He has been smoking for 25 years, and he's been coughing a lot recently.
- A. It's high time to give up smoking.
  - B. It's high time he gave up smoking.
  - C. It's high time for him to give up smoking.