

Passive voice B1 Test 1 (present and past continuous, be going to, future simple)

1. They are repairing our car.
 - A. Our car is repaired.
 - B. Our car is repairing.
 - C. Our car is being repaired.

2. I will tell you later.
 - A. You will be told later.
 - B. You will been told later.
 - C. You will told later.

3. They are building a new cinema in the town at present.
 - A. A new cinema is building in the town at present.
 - B. A new cinema is built in the town at present.
 - C. A new cinema is being built in the town at present.

4. Peter is going to buy a new car next week.
 - A. A new car is being bought by Peter next week.
 - B. A new car is going to be bought by Peter next week.
 - C. A new car is going to buy by Peter next week.

5. Someone was cleaning the windows while I was there.
 - A. The windows were being cleaned while I was there.
 - B. The windows were cleaning while I was there.
 - C. The windows were cleaned while I was there.

6. They are opening the case again because they are not satisfied with the verdict.
 - A. The case is opening again because they are not satisfied with the verdict.
 - B. The case is opened again because they are not satisfied with the verdict.
 - C. The case is being opened again because they are not satisfied with the verdict.

7. They are building a new hospital near the church.
 - A. A new hospital is being built near the church.
 - B. A new hospital is built near the church.
 - C. A new hospital is being building near the church.

8. Just a moment, I'm making dinner.
- A. Just a moment, dinner is made.
 - B. Just a moment, dinner is making.
 - C. Just a moment, dinner is being made.
9. Do you think the chairman is going to approve it?
- A. Do you think it is being approved by the chairman?
 - B. Do you think it is going to been approved by the chairman?
 - C. Do you think it is going to be approved by the chairman?
10. The waitress will bring you drinks in a moment.
- A. Your drinks will be brought in a moment (by the waitress).
 - B. Your drinks will be bring in a moment (by the waitress).
 - C. Your drinks will been brought in a moment (by the waitress).