

Wish clauses B2 – Test 1

1. They are noisy and I need to work.
 - A. I wish they would be quiet.
 - B. I wish they are quiet.
 - C. I wish they were quiet.

2. I have to go to work tomorrow although I'd rather stay at home.
 - A. I wish I won't have to go to work tomorrow.
 - B. I wish I wouldn't have to go to work tomorrow.
 - C. I wish I didn't have to go to work tomorrow.

3. I'm cold. I regret not bringing my coat with me. (There are more correct options)
 - A. If only I had brought my coat with me.
 - B. I wish I would bring my coat with me.
 - C. I wish I brought my coat with me.

4. I would like to play the violin but it's too difficult for me to learn.
 - A. I hope I could play the violin.
 - B. I wish I could play the violin.
 - C. I wish I played the violin.

5. He was very sorry about all the trouble he'd caused.
 - A. He wished he wouldn't have caused all the trouble.
 - B. He wished he didn't cause all the trouble.
 - C. He wished he hadn't caused all the trouble.

6. I should have taken your advice.
 - A. If only I took your advice.
 - B. If only I had taken your advice.
 - C. If only I would take your advice.

7. Sue is constantly chewing gum. (There are more correct options)
- A. I wish Sue didn't chew gum all the time.
 - B. I wish Sue wouldn't chew gum all the time.
 - C. If only Sue wouldn't chew gum all the time.
8. It's raining and I'd like to walk a dog. (There are more correct options)
- A. If only it weren't raining.
 - B. If only it wasn't raining.
 - C. I wish it weren't raining.
9. She regrets having read his emails.
- A. She wishes she hadn't read his emails.
 - B. She wishes she didn't read his emails.
 - C. She wishes she wouldn't read his emails.
10. I shouldn't have been so rude to him. (There are more correct options)
- A. I wish I wouldn't be so rude to him.
 - B. If only I hadn't been so rude to him.
 - C. I wish I hadn't been so rude to him.